

International Sanctions: A Legal Research Guide Volume 91

Christopher Anglim

- Provides researchers with a comprehensive understanding of international sanctions and their crucial role within global politics
- Contains research methodologies for UN and US sanctions from the Cold War era up to the present
- A must-have for students, faculty, lawyers, and researchers working within the fields of international relations and national security

About This Title

This guide is an introduction to the basic doctrines, institutions, and methodology of international sanctions, as it provides an overview of legal and operational capacity requirements for effective sanctions implementation by nation-states and international organizations—effective border control, well-organized and monitored financial systems, secured travel documents identification system, migration controls, legal and administrative capacities commensurate with the complexity of sanction regimes, and the capacity for international cooperation in the implementation and enforcement of sanctions. Many nations have used sanctions or have had sanctions imposed against them or their citizens. Nation-states have also often used sanctions to impose economic rather than armed force. As such, sanctions have been commonly used in foreign relations, peacekeeping, and conflict resolution.

In addition to providing an explanation on the importance of the topic, this guide provides research methodologies into the purposes, types, and targets of sanctions. It goes into specifics on the many UN sanctions passed from the Cold War era up to the present, and explains the administrative framework for U.S. sanctions and all the departments and agencies that can be involved. It lists the requisite sources to consult, including primary and secondary material and databases.

About the Author

Professor Christopher T. Anglim is a reference librarian at both the University of the District of Columbia and American University Washington School of Law. His degrees include a JD, MBA (with a Nonprofit certification), MA in History, and a Masters in Library Science. In addition, he is a certified Non-profit Professional (CNP). He previously worked at the law libraries at St. Mary's University in San Antonio, Texas, South Texas College of Law in Houston, Texas, and Prairie View A&M University. Dr. Anglim has written several other books, articles and papers on issues of Law, Political Science, Government, Religion, and Business, and is a previous winner of the AALL Joseph L. Andrews Bibliographic Award.

International Sanctions: A Legal Research Guide

Table of Contents

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

PREFACE

- A. Sanctions in General
- B. UN Sanctions
- C. US Sanctions

I. OVERVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL SANCTIONS

- A. Definition of Sanctions
- B. Purpose for Sanctions
- C. Types of Sanctions
 - 1. Comprehensive v. Targeted Sanctions
 - 2. Diplomatic Sanctions
 - 3. Economic Sanctions
 - 4. Financial Sanctions
 - 5. Military Intervention or Enforcement
 - 6. Athletics Sanctions
 - 7. Geographic Sanctions
 - 8. Environmental Sanctions
 - 9. Sectoral Sanctions
 - 10. Primary Sanctions
 - 11. Secondary Sanctions
- D. Targets of Sanctions
 - 1. Comprehensive (Broad) Sanctions v. Targeted Sanctions
 - 2. Effectiveness and Success of Sanctions
 - 3. Recognition of the Rights of Sanctioned States and Parties

II. UNITED NATIONS SANCTIONS AND SANCTION REGIMES

- A. UN Security Council Committee on Sanctions
 - 1. UN Sanctions in the Cold-War Era: 1945–1990
 - 2. UN Sanctions in the Sanctions Decade: 1990–2000
 - 3. UN Sanctions: 2001–Present
- B. Case Study: Conflict Diamonds and the Kimberley Process

- C. The Effectiveness of UN Sanctions
 - 1. Whether Economic Sanctions Are Effective
 - 2. The US Role on the Security Council on UN Sanctions

III. US GOVERNMENT INTERNATIONAL SANCTIONS

- A. US Law of International Sanctions
 - 1. Legal Framework for the US Sanctions Program
- B. US Statutory Law and Sanctions
- C. Administrative Framework for US Sanctions Program
 - 1. The US State Department
 - 2. US Treasury Department
 - 3. The US Commerce Department
 - 4. The US Justice Department
 - 5. The US Department of Homeland Security
 - 6. US Intelligence Community (USIC)
 - 7. The US Department of Energy
 - 8. The US Department of Defense
- D. The US Designation Process
 - 1. Implementation of US Sanctions
- E. Current US Sanction Regimes
 - 1. Cuba Sanctions Program
 - 2. Iran Sanctions Program
 - 3. Sudan Sanctions Program
 - 4. Russia Sanctions Program

IV. SANCTIONS RESEARCH

- A. Secondary Sources
 - 1. Monographs
 - 2. Practice Books
 - 3. Casebooks
 - 4. Reference and Tertiary Works
 - 5. Journals
- B. Internet Research
 - 1. Databases
 - 2. Academic Internet Sites

*International Sanctions: A Legal Research Guide

Legal Research Guides, Volume 91

Author: Christopher Anglim

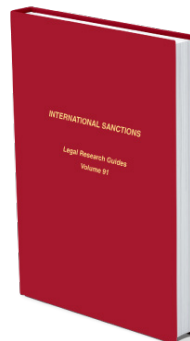

Item #: 1007024

ISBN: 978-0-8377-4146-8

Pages: xx, 105p.

1 Volume, perfect bound.....$95.00

Published: Getzville; William S. Hein & Co., Inc.; 2022

customerservice@wshein.com

800-828-7571

Standing order customers automatically receive this title*