

A Union List of Appellate Court Records and Briefs: Federal and State

AALL Publications Series No. 58

By: Michael Whiteman and Peter Scott Campbell

- The only comprehensive reference source for locating appellate court briefs from all jurisdictions in multiple formats
- New edition thoroughly updates contact information, holdings information, and references to online access to appellate court briefs
- Nearly 20 years have passed since the first edition—new content highlights dramatically increased availability of material since the digital revolution
- Easy-to-use layout and comprehensive coverage ensures fast and accurate research

About A Union List of Appellate Court Records and Briefs: Federal and State

Appellate court records and briefs are a useful, yet underutilized resource for the legal researcher, offering a wealth of background information on cases that may elucidate the reasoning behind judicial opinions. Since the publication of the first edition, some 18 years ago, the electronic revolution has dramatically increased the availability of these resources. This new edition highlights the availability of both “for free” and “for a fee” resources and also provides an accurate picture of libraries and archives that still maintain physical copies (both print and microform).

This Union List is divided into four sections: United States Supreme Court, United States Circuit Courts of Appeals, State Final Appellate Courts, and State Intermediate Appellate Courts. Each section is arranged by court, noting the address and phone number of the clerk of court before listing libraries that hold briefs from that court. Next are listed libraries in alphabetical order by location, giving the name, address, phone number, URL, holdings information, format of the holdings, and when possible, its lending policy.

About the Authors

Michael Whiteman

Michael Whiteman is a Professor of Law and Associate Dean for Law Library Services and Information Technology at Northern Kentucky University Chase College of Law. He received his B.A. from Concordia University in Montreal, Canada, his Juris Doctorate from the University of Louisville, and his Master of Science in Library and Information Science from Simmons College. He is a member of the Massachusetts Bar. He teaches Basic Legal Research, Advanced Legal Research, and Criminal Law. He has published numerous articles, books, and book chapters. His most recent article is Appellate Jurisprudence in the Internet Age, 14 Nw. J. Tech. & Intell. Prop. 255 (2017).

Peter Scott Campbell

Peter Scott Campbell is the Technical Services Librarian for the Law Library of Louis D. Brandies School of Law at the University of Louisville. He received his B.A. and his Master of Library Science from Indiana University. He is the editor of the forthcoming The Quotable Brandeis (Carolina Academic Press).

A Union of Appellate Court Records and Briefs: Federal and State

Table of Contents

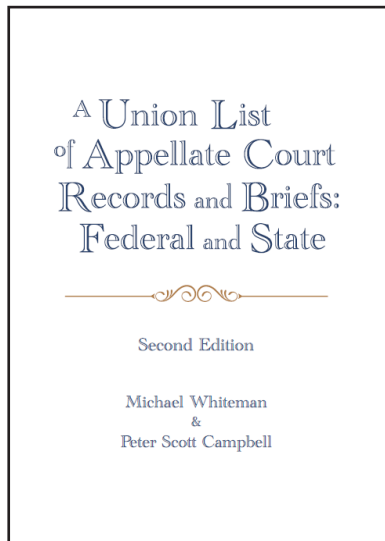

Introduction to the 2nd edition.....	xi
Introduction to the 1st edition.....	xv
United States Supreme Court.....	1
United States Circuit Court of Appeals.....	21
State Final Appellate Courts.....	39
State Intermediate Appellate Courts.....	79

About the AALL Publications Series

The purpose of the AALL Publication Program is to further the mission of the American Association of Law Libraries by providing information products and services to the membership on a variety of topics and in a range of formats. More specifically, the AALL Publications Program seeks to:

- Develop high-quality educational and informational resources for all users of legal information, to increase the accessibility of legal materials and the value of law libraries
- Create materials that enhance the professional development of law librarians, by contributing to the updating of their knowledge and skills
- Provide venues for the exchange of ideas and opinions, and for the dissemination of research results
- Support greater knowledge and understanding of legal information products and services and improved relations with vendors especially through evaluative materials and comparisons

For a full list of titles available in this series, contact marketing@wshein.com.

Union List of Appellate Court Records and Briefs: Federal and State (2nd edition)
AALL Publication Series #58
Item #: 13992
ISBN: 978-0-8377-4065-2
Pages: xvi, 114p.
1 Volume.....$64.95
Distributed: Getzville; William S. Hein & Co., Inc.; 2017

order@wshein.com | 800-828-7571