William S. Hein & Co., Inc. is pleased to offer United Nations Statement of Treaties and Agreements.. This work has been made available to fill gaps that have existed in many international law collections worldwide due to the fact that many back issues quickly go out-of-print.

This collection from Hein covers the period from 1983 through 2012, since much information about treaties and international agreements registered or filed during this period has not yet been published in the United Nations Treaty Series (UNTS).

To facilitate research, the reprint arranges the various lists and annexes collectively for each year. Cumulative annual indexes, numerical lists, and recapitulative tables appear at the end of every bound volume.

The United Nations Statement of Treaties and Agreements reprint set is an excellent research tool and should be part of the reference section of any serious international law collection for students and scholars interested in locating information on world treaties and agreements not available in UNTS.
