CURRENT TREATY INDEX

Supplement to United States Treaty Index: 1776-2011 Consolidation
(Including Revised and Supplementary Volumes)
60th edition (Spring 2017)

The Current Treaty Index is a companion service to the United States Treaty Index: 1776-2000 Consolidation and its revised volumes, and the Consolidation 2006 Supplement. Published twice yearly it contains information on current actions by the United States on hundreds of treaties and agreements. Such information falls into two categories:

- Treaties and agreements published in the Treaties and Other International Acts Series (TIAS) pamphlets, also known as slip agreements.
- Treaties and agreements entered into by the United States and publicized by the State Department but NOT yet published in the TIAS pamphlets. (These agreements are given temporary “KAV” numbers).

Additional features of the Current Treaty Index include:

- Complete descriptions of treaties and agreements in a Numerical Index;
- A Chronological Index
- A Country Index
- A Subject Index
- A Geographical Subject Index

CURRENT TREATY INDEX
Supplement to United States Treaty Index: 1776-2011 Consolidation
(Including Revised and Supplementary Volumes)
55th edition (Fall 2014)

In addition, several conversion tables are provided to assist the researcher in converting from KAV to TIAS, TIAS to KAV, Senate Treaty Documents and their respective KAV or TIAS numbers, and KAV or TIAS to Senate Treaty Document.

Finally, this looseleaf volume also includes a table of agreements whose texts are available in Hein's United States Treaties and Other International Agreements Current Microfiche Service (please contact marketing@wshein.com for more information about this service).

This quick-reference guide is an indispensable addition to any U.S. Treaty collection, and belongs on the shelf of almost all academic libraries.
