ECONOMIC REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

Together With the Annual Report of the Council of the Economic Advisors

Published annually as a requirement of the Employment Act of 1946, (an Act which sought to set goals to maximize employment, production and purchasing power in the United States), this Report provides a comprehensive review of economic conditions and trends, desirable objectives for employment, production and purchasing power, and the President's economic program for attaining these objectives. The Act also established a Council of Economic Advisors to help the President prepare the Economic Reports.

The Economic Report of the President is written by the Chairman of the Council of Economic Advisors. It summarizes the nation's economic progress using text and extensive data appendices. The Report is transmitted to Congress no later than 10 days after the submission of the Budget of the United States Government. Standing Order Service for this Title is Available.
