

AALL Annual Meetings

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF LAW LIBRARIES

An Annotated Index of the Recordings

By Frank G. Houdek, Susan D. Goldner and Jessie Wallace

The American Association of Law Libraries was founded in 1906 to promote and enhance the value of law libraries to the legal and public communities, to foster the profession of law librarianship, and to provide leadership in the field of legal information. With over 5,000 members, AALL represents law librarians and related professionals who are affiliated with a wide range of institutions: law firms; law schools; corporate legal departments; courts; and local, state and federal government agencies.

The AALL Annual Meeting is the association's premier event, offering a wealth of valuable information in a wide variety of presentations, which are preserved on audiotape.

This collection provides indexing by subject, title, speaker and sponsor for the 50 or more programs recorded at each AALL Annual Meeting.
