Volume 60 of the Legal Research Guide Series

Consumer Law A Legal Research Suide

By Lee Peoples

Professor of Law Library Science and Law Library Director Oklahoma City University School of Law

About Consumer Law

Consumer law research brings together several interrelated subject areas and is governed by both state and federal laws, including a complex array of administrative agencies and regulations. This legal research guide aims to provide the researcher a path through the morass. It begins by laying out a research strategy for tackling consumer law issues. A thorough introduction to secondary sources useful for consumer law research is included. The most important treatises, looseleafs, and practice resources for consumer law and the related fields of bankruptcy, sales, real estate, mortgages, and banking law are discussed. An overview of important federal statutes related to consumer law is included, along with a discussion of the administrative agencies charged with implementing and enforcing consumer law.

Also including:_____

- The implementation of the Consumer Financial Protection Act of 2010
- Consumer law research at the state level
- Tips & techniques for researching model and uniform acts
- The most important reliable free and subscription electronic resources
- Strategies and sources for keeping abreast of the latest change in consumer law & much more!

Don't wait; order today!_

Pricing Information: 1 volume......$60.00

Item #: 72331

ISBN: 978-0-8377-3857-4

Published: Buffalo; William S. Hein & Co., Inc.; 2012

Contact order@wshein.com or 800.828.7571 to place your order today!

To learn more about Hein's Legal Research Guides Series, please visit:

https://www.wshein.com/media/brochures/8727.pdf

