

AALS Law Books Recommended Microfiche Project

Enhance Your Collection Today at a Fraction of Bound-Volume Prices!

The AALS Law Books Recommended Microfiche Project currently contains more than 5,500 volumes that are listed in the Association of American Law Schools Law Books Recommended for Libraries collection. This collection has been utilized for years in helping law libraries develop their legal research collections with the titles most appropriate for their library's acquisition goals. The Project is divided into subject areas, providing a convenient method for libraries to expand or complete their holdings under a particular subject area. It is regularly updated with newly discovered titles in existing subject areas. Considering the cost to purchase the selected titles in hardcopy, this microfiche alternative will save your library thousands of dollars!

Currently, this valuable research collection contains titles in the following subject areas:
