

Contents

- 1 Introduction—1
- 2 A Quick Tour of the Bluebook—3
- 3 Typeface—5
 - What to Underline—5
 - What Not to Underline—6
- 4 How to Cite a Case—7
 - State Cases—7
 - Regional reporters—7
 - Official state reporters—9
 - Federal Cases—10
 - The United States Supreme Court—11
 - The federal courts of appeals—11
 - The federal district courts—12
 - Other Sources for Cases—13
 - LEXIS, Westlaw, and the Internet—13
 - Looseleaf services—14
 - Public domain citations—15
 - Other Rules for Citing Cases—16
 - Subsequent and prior history—16
 - Introductory signals—17
 - Parentheticals—18
 - Location and order of citations—20
 - Case names—21
 - Short form for case names—23
 - Pinpoint citations: citing or quoting a specific page—24
 - Short form citations—25
 - Id.—27
 - Block quotations—29
 - Changes in quotations—31

5 How to Cite a Statute—35

Federal Statutes—35

State Statutes—36

Other Rules for Citing Statutes—38

Supplements and pocket parts—38

Session laws—38

Citing a statute to LEXIS or Westlaw—39

Names of statutes and original section numbers—40

Short form for statutory citations—40

Uniform acts—41

6 How to Cite Other Commonly Cited Sources—43

Constitutions—43

Rules of Evidence and Procedure—44

Restatements—44

Administrative Rules and Regulations—45

Books—46

Law Review Articles—47

A.L.R.—49

The Record—49

The Internet—51